

To Whom I Cherish Till Eternity,

THE RAVAGING I POWER

Evil is rising. One of its kinds is burrowing values from countless Christians. Today, we're fed with motivational teachings which we don't need. These messages dwell on I can. Yet this "I can" is not what the Bible teaches. Vain motivational messages have ruined the spiritual lives of many Christians.

The effect of I power has eroded real revival and God's presence in our churches. I speak without apology. Ministers and members are caught in the web. Vast preachers have changed from teaching Christ to, "how to discover your inner power and rule your world" messages. What vanities! This's not a slight matter.

Check your life. Consider the past five years when you were glued to God, ignorant of this false I power. Were you not useful and productive in God's hands? Were you not fervent? Were you not tough bone for the devil? Were you not selfless? Scan your life if I'm not hitting the truth. What went wrong?

Alas, the end of time is at hand. Men's pride is on ascendency. They seek their own shameful glory. Howl church! We've drifted past the line. Let's get back before it's too late. Solomon, after learning the follies of his pride, flogs, "Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall. Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud" (Proverbs 16:18-20).

Don't trust soul power without the Holy Spirit. It's folly. Don't chase I power and never turn your soul to the dustbin of pride. Cleave to humility and receive grace to walk the path of the lowly.
